

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To All Savings Account and Money Market Savings Account Owners

Financial disruptions arising in connection with the novel coronavirus situation have caused many depositors to have a more urgent need for access to their funds by remote means, particularly in light of the closure of many depository institution branches and other in-person facilities.

An interim final rule to Federal Reserve Regulation D was issued which permits depository institutions to suspend enforcement of the six-transaction limit on savings and money market accounts effective immediately.

Therefore, we are suspending the six-transaction limit until further notice. In addition, the Excessive Transaction fee will be waived during this time.

This change applies to the following account types:

- Access Savings
- Advantage Savings
- Money Market Savings
- Preferred Money Market (Personal and Non-Personal)
- Business Savings
- Business Money Market Savings
- Trust Savings
- Estate Savings
- DBA Savings
- Trust Money Market Savings
- Estate Money Market Savings
- DBA Money Market Savings
